Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Lloyd Raymond Belseth has been a loyal citizen of South Dakota since his birth in Union County in 1923; and,

WHEREAS, Lloyd started working for the South Dakota Geological Survey in April of 1963 in Vermillion as a driller's assistant mechanic, was appointed head driller in July, 1965, and drill supervisor in July, 1967; and,

WHEREAS, During his distinguished career, Lloyd married Maxcene Kendrick and they were blessed with four children--David Lloyd born September 30, 1946; Dennis Clark born November 2, 1947; Gregory Wayne born October 12, 1961; and Karla Jean born December 5, 1964; and,

WHEREAS, Lloyd has contributed widely, during his 24-year career, toward a better understanding of the geology and hydrology of South Dakota, and has further distinguished himself through church and community works; and,

WHEREAS, After 24 years of dedicated service to the South Dakota Geological Survey and, having reached the age of 65, Lloyd has retired from employment with the South Dakota Geological Survey on March 18, 1988; and,

WHEREAS, On April 2, 1988, there will be a celebration in Vermillion by family and friends to honor Lloyd; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of the milestones in the lives of exemplary South Dakotans:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 2, 1988, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Second Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
